No.5027 date the 29th June 1943

Copy of letter from the Superintendent, Government Central Book Depot, Bangalore, to the Secretary to Government, Law Department.

I have the honour to state that there is demand from the Lawyers etc., for the copies of Defence of India Act XXVI of 1939 and Rules thereunder and for House Rent Control Order. The requisition for the supply of the above publications have been sent to you already in this office letters Nos.3659 dated the 9th March 1942 and 4351 dated the 15th May 1943 (along with other books) respectively.

I therefore request that early arrangements may be kindly made to supply the above books.

The War Section may be requested kindly to take action regarding the printing and supply of the House Rent Contro Order and the Defence of India Rules as desired by the Superintendent, Government Central Book Depot. The War Section may also intimate whether letter No.3659 dated 9th March has been received from the Superintendent, Government Central Book Depot.

War Section)

Now we have to verify whether the Defence of India Rules are really out of stock. I see that the late letter of 13th May 1943 does not include this.
